

BECOME A MEMBER!

Members receive tickets to all four concerts.

SILVER MEMBERSHIP - $75.00

Season tickets for one person

GOLD MEMBERSHIP - $150.00

Season tickets for two people

DIAMOND MEMBERSHIP - $250.00

Season tickets for four people

MAIL-IN MEMBERSHIP

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: ____ Zip: _____

Silver Gold Diamond

Check MasterCard Visa AmEx

Credit Card #

Exp Date: _____

Email Address:

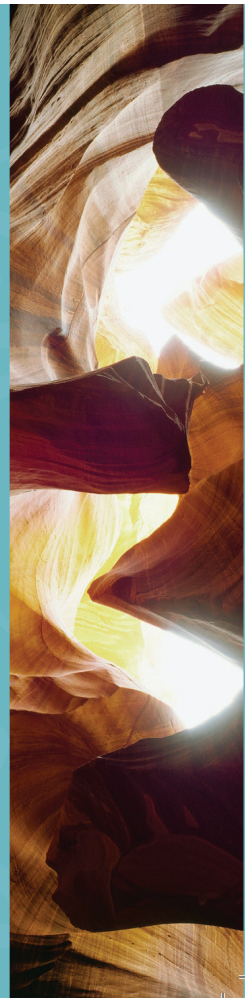

Phone Number:

Patricia Cosand
123 W. Sample Street
Mesa, AZ 85201

Symphony of the Southwest
122 N. MacDonald Street
Mesa, AZ 85201

SYMPHONY of the SOUTHWEST

..... 2011-12 CONCERT SCHEDULE

2011-2012 SEASON CONCERTS

General Admission Tickets $19

FROM BACH TO BARTOK

Saturday, November 5, 2011 at 7:30pm
MESA ARTS CENTER – Piper Theater

Tickets available through MAC

Call 480-644-6500

Email boxoffice@mesaartscenter.com

Violin virtuoso Katie McLin and the Symphony of the Southwest strings perform Bach's concerto in A minor surrounded by 20th century music that looks back in time to the 16th and 18th centuries. The dance suite, theme and variations, and concerto grosso are lovingly captured by Bartok, Parry, and Vaughan Williams.

ABOUT KATIE MCLIN

ASU professor Katherine McLin enjoys a prolific career as a concerto soloist, recitalist, and orchestral musician.

Come hear her dazzling performance of Bach's famous Concerto in A Minor.

HOLIDAY CELEBRATION

Saturday, December 10, 2011 at 2:30pm
MESA ARTS CENTER – Ikeda Theater

Tickets available through MAC

Call 480-644-6500

Email boxoffice@mesaartscenter.com

Catch the holiday spirit with Symphony of the Southwest and the Youth Symphony of the Southwest on stage side by side in a festive celebration of the season.

LET US SERENADE YOU

Saturday, March 3, 2012 at 7:30pm
MESA ARTS CENTER – Piper Theater

Tickets available through MAC

Call 480-644-6500

Email boxoffice@mesaartscenter.com

Richard Strauss, Antonin Dvorak, and Johannes Brahms are well known, but some of their most beautiful music is not. These serenades are exquisite and this is a rare opportunity to hear them played by the fabulous wind section of the Symphony of the Southwest.

SYMPHONY OF THE SOUTHWEST CELEBRATES ARIZONA

Saturday, March 31, 2012 at 7:30pm
MESA ARTS CENTER – Ikeda Theater

Tickets available through MAC

Call 480-644-6500

Email boxoffice@mesaartscenter.com

Celebrate Arizona's Centennial. Enjoy the visual beauty of Arizona with images projected on a giant screen while you listen to Ferde Grofe's enchanting Grand Canyon Suite. Other Arizona composers will be featured. You won't want to miss this celebration in sight and sound.

CAL STEWART KELLOGG, MUSIC DIRECTOR

Photo by: Robert Strava

Cal Stewart Kellogg first conducted the Symphony of the Southwest in 2005 after completing a six year collaboration with the Arizona Opera. He has conducted symphonic programs worldwide with orchestras in Belgium, Israel, Italy, and Monaco. In North America, he has conducted the Baltimore Symphony, Chautauqua Symphony, Seattle Symphony, New World Symphony, Orchestra of Illinois, Philharmonic Orchestra of Florida and at the Spoleto Festival U.S.A.

Before moving to Phoenix in 2000, Mr. Kellogg conducted 24 opera productions over 16 consecutive seasons for the Washington Opera at the Kennedy Center, Washington D.C.